

HEARTLAND ASSOCIATION OF JUNGIAN ANALYSTS
Rogers AR and St Louis MO

December 2023

Dear Friend of Jung:

The Faculty of the Heartland Association of Jungian Analysts (HAJA) Seminars invites you to participate in a HAJA Seminar on February 2-3, 2024, when Jungian Analyst, Rose Holt, MA, will present on the topic: Does Religion Have a Role in Psychology?

This invitation is your opportunity to experience a HAJA Seminar and perhaps to determine your interest in applying to our program. HAJA Seminars offer interested individuals the opportunity to deepen their education in Jungian Psychology and, for those desiring to do so, the Seminars are a potential avenue for entering into formal training to become a Jungian analyst with the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts (IRSJA).

This February Seminar will meet in St. Louis, in-person. Friday afternoon we gather at 3:30 p.m. at First Congregational Church of St. Louis, 6501 Wydown Blvd, St. Louis MO, 63105. Parking is available at the back of the building where there is a substantial lot. You may park in spaces that have signs "No Parking Schlafley". Those signs apply to the residents of the Washington University dormitory named "Schlafley".

If you are traveling to St. Louis and need a hotel room we recommend the Clayton Plaza Hotel.

The Invitational Seminar includes a Friday didactic (from 3:30 -9 pm), Saturday morning (9 am-Noon) and Saturday afternoon 1:00-2:30 PM [all times CST].

Cost for the seminar is $200 and includes 10 hours of NBCC CEs. Please mail your check to Dr. Virginia Krauft, Center for Psychology, 901 Rainbow Road, Rogers, AR 72758. If you prefer to use ZELLE send the fee to Sheldon Culver at 636-795-0750.

The February Invitational syllabus, attached, includes the readings for the Seminar and information about Rose Holt.
